Administration of Life Certificates in the Wake of Covid-19 Containment Measures

The National Social Security Authority (NSSA) wishes to advise pensioners who have not renewed their life certificates to do so before 30 June 2021 to guarantee continued pay-outs.

Administration of Life Certificates will be done according to strict Covid-19 protocols, with limited numbers being handled at various NSSA regional, sub and satellite offices across the country. Pensioners are advised to utilise their nearest offices for this exercise.

Since 1 April 2021, NSSA has been on a massive life certificates administration exercise throughout the country, to mitigate the risk of paying undeserving beneficiaries and ghost pensioners.

For their own safety, as well as the safety of the general public, NSSA pensioners are reminded to strictly observe the government prescribed COVID-19 prevention measures during this exercise.
